COMPANY
Construction Company
United Kingdom

Founded in 1875, the company is one of the UK's leading homebuilders specializing in new developments and council-backed affordable housing. They work together with communities, support various charities, and provide local sponsorship like bursary initiatives to add long-term value while providing ongoing career opportunities.

Challenges

The construction company's legacy system hindered the ability to optimize document processes, increase operational efficiency, and adhere to regulatory compliance. The business aimed to implement a solution that integrated with their legacy system to help follow regulatory compliance standards and automate processes.

- Employees struggled to align with union payroll and industry compliance requirements

- Inefficient and error-prone manual tasks to process physical documents

- The inability to print at optimal speeds caused delays as well as inflated paper and printing costs

Solution

OL Connect seamlessly integrates with the company's legacy system to extensively improve processes and support regulatory compliance.

- Triggers automated processes through print output from the existing legacy system

- Generates fully compliant salary slips due to robust document composition capabilities

- Produces dynamic and personalized bonus letters

- Easily creates email versions of documents to meet modern standards

- Automatically distributes print and email formats

Results

- Reduced manual tasks to significantly improve staff productivity and enable staff re-allocation

- Enhanced business operations and increased employee satisfaction

- Full compliance with industry and union payroll regulations

- Optimized printing and reduced paper costs

Document types

- Salary slips
- Bonus letters
- Variable data documents
